GOSSIP PIG ONE

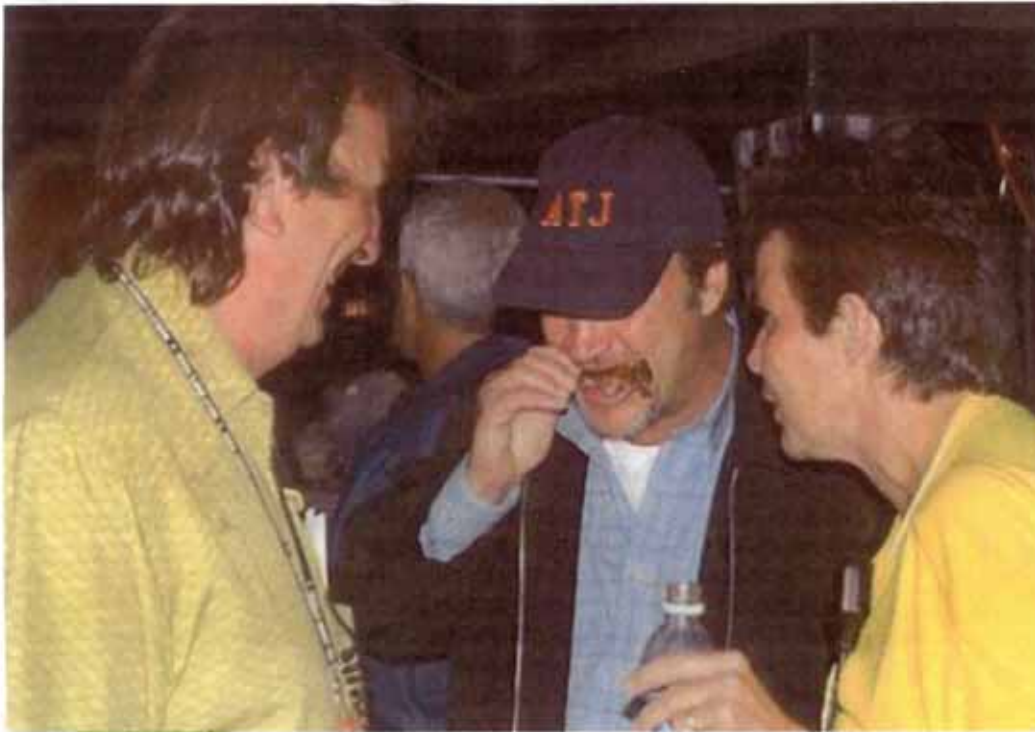

WE HIRED A NEW CHEF SO THE HOUSEKEEPERS CAN NOW GO BACK TO THEIR JOB'S

We don't have A Famous Dave's in Santiago but we sure do have a real good chef named Dave, and Dave just happens to be very good at smoking ribs here on-site as well as preparing many other culinary goodies. There is more from Dave on the chef's corner, next page. The entire staff is happy about this move because it means Ray has been relieved of his cooking duties and the wait staff has finally achieved relief. Those who work at housekeeping can now go back to doing the work they were hired to do. They are so happy. There is a picture of Jack Nicholson from the movie "The Shining", which pretty much reflects the mood Ray was in most of the time. If you recall Jack played the part of a psychopath. Now that relief has been achieved and the food is much better people can enjoy dining and working here while Ray can be hidden in the cubicle office upstairs out of site and out of mind. HALLELUAH HAPPY DAYS ARE HERE AGAIN!

CAST FROM THE PAST: JIM BELUSHI HANGING OUT IN 2004

Jim Belushi pounding a rib while being humored at Bailey Rays 2004

Santiago...It was June 2004 on a beautiful Saturday night when The Sacred Hearts led by Jim Belushi took the stage to play some solid blues licks. The back-up band was comprised of world class musicians who normally play with big name bands across the musical spectrum. The night was clear, the weather warm and folks were into his presence and the band's performance. Lamont Cranston and Billy Cade had opened the show. Jim sat at a table and lines formed for autographs. It was a big fun night for those of us attending. As far as the future possibility of Jim Belushi and the Sacred Hearts returning, who knows? We will just have to stay tuned.

USELESS INFORMATION

"Be true to your teeth and they won't be false"

Someone living in New York could eat out every night of their life and never eat at the same restaurant.

- The Snickers bar is America's most popular candy bar.
- Americans eat 12 billion bananas each year.
- The Incas measured time by how long it took a potato to cook.
- Apples ripen after being picked while oranges do not.

Chef's corner

Hello to all. My name is David Klimesh and I'm the new kitchen manager at Bailey Ray's. This will be my column in which I will share recipes, tips, ideas and stories about the restaurant industry. I'd like to start my first article by telling you a little about myself.

I have over ten years experience in the restaurant world and I have to say it is one of the most rewarding jobs I can imagine. My culinary experiences include sous chefing at Maynard's and prior management at Bailey Ray's and Heroes. I have also had stints with Trails, Applebee's, and a handful of other dining establishments.

From all these experiences I have managed to accumulate the knowledge and capabilities to turn Bailey Ray's into the restaurant Terry and Ray imagined. We pride ourselves on freshness and quality at a reasonable price. There will never be a shortage of ideas around here. We have been given the opportunity to serve some of the best food in the area to you. I encourage you to come see us. Stop in say hello and give me and the talented staff an opportunity to serve you. I promise you'll come here and see why everyone is saying Bailey Rays is worth the drive.

THE KING OF SLING GOES BACK TO SCHOOL

Dave Woolard, the three year reigning champion of B.S announced his return to school life after retirement has left him moderately bored. Bailey Ray's is planning a second run to see who should be crowned the greatest B-Ser of Santiago or otherwise known as the "KING OF SLING".

David plans to deepen his ability and says "I will get my BS, my MD, and finally my PHD" We all know this is bull crap, much deeper, and piled higher and deeper degrees.

There are many who believe they belong in the same league as the "KING" but lost out on their last bid to become the "King of Sling". Some of the runner-ups included Jerry Nelson, Gary Nelson, and Stu Nelson. There is no wonder Bailey Ray's posts a Nelson capacity of 8 in their bar. Any more Nelsons than that would require an around the clock septic guy such as Busse Septic just to clear the space and the air.

We will be alerting folks to the next crowning of the "King of Sling" with a format sure to bust your ribs. We will be selecting a local panel to judge the participants. People vying for the title will be required to sit on the stage microphone in hand and tell some stories. The panel will judge based on the level and complexity of those stories. Those who survive the cut will have to continue telling stories until the finalist is chosen. It is sure to be a hoot. Get your stories together ladies and gents. A date will be set soon and you can bet the "KING OF SLING" will be there. Ray
